Submission #2:

I untaught myself that the Universe will end because it never began

I untaught myself that the stars make up shapes because we want them to

I untaught myself that the sun is a ball of fire because it's beyond that I untaught myself that the moon follows me around because it couldn't care less

I untaught myself that the air is here for me because it's just waste from plants

I untaught myself that I know how others feel because I don't even know how I feel

I untaught myself myself because

with
